Delivering The Promise!

November 2012

Dear Ten Mile River Alumni Member:

In 2013, Ten Mile River Scout Camps will be celebrating 86 years of delivering the promise and we can't be more excited! Ten Mile River Scout Camps expect to serve even more Scouts in 2013 than they have in the past. We're enthusiastic about Summer Camp and its potential to make a difference in the lives of volunteers and Scouts. We hope that you will feel the enthusiasm as we venture into the outdoors together for yet another summer. We had a successful 2012 season and we are still soaring in a positive direction. We would especially like to thank those volunteers and Scouts who return year after year to enjoy the many opportunities the Ten Mile River Scout Camps have to offer.

Every youth or adult who has spent time at Ten Mile River has unique memories of their camping experiences. This is why the Ten Mile River Alumni Association was established; to preserve and relish these moments. There are also countless friendships that were created at the Ten Mile River Scout Camps, many of which still continue today. The red dust of camp roads, the gray stones that seem to be everywhere, the blue lakes that dot the Reservation, and the green ferns that wave in the gentle breeze are indelibly etched in our collective memories: we love that about our camps.

In 2013, thousands of young men and women will take to the trails, swim in the lakes, sing great camp songs around campfires, smell the wood smoke, and create those same experiences and friendships that you once did. Memories of the scenic views and the beauty of our reservation will shine brightly in their memories as they step foot in our camps.

I humbly ask that you once again renew your Ten Mile River Alumni Membership.
