

GREATER NEW YORK COUNCILS, BOY SCOUTS OF AMERICA WILL CELEBRATE THE 100TH ANNIVERSARY OF SCOUTING WITH THE NATION ... WILL YOU??

Your Troop or Scouts couldn't make it to the celebration of the 2010 National Jamboree?
Here is another chance to attend a Scouting Celebration that will be remembered as one of the great events that marked the 100th Anniversary of Boy Scouting – right in your own “backyard”

While this event is being finalized, here are some of the highlights you may take advantage of:

- Live simulcast feeds and broadcasts from the National Jamboree closing show
- Enjoy a Saturday night Campfire program with a closing fireworks display to celebrate this anniversary
- Hot Air Balloon display
- Opportunities to purchase 100th anniversary memorabilia, both from Ten Mile River and National BSA
- Visit the Ten Mile River Museum, enjoy doughnuts from the original “Doughnut Farm” machine, see the original collection of neckerchief slides from the “Slide Farm” and visit all of the other Historical Sites of the Reservation
- As a Troop, make a reservation for a Delaware River Canoe Trip* (Saturday or Sunday)
- Climbing, Rappelling and Zip Line from a 40 foot lakefront tower
- COPE activities on a new COPE course
- Black Powder shooting, along with .22 cal and 12 gauge Shotgun Shooting
- Archery competition shooting
- Mountain Biking and Pedal Carts
- Scout Craft hands-on demonstrations and competitions
- Lake swimming, with use of water trampolines
- Take a Kayak Swap Trek, or brave a “Muck” Hike
- Canoes, Kayaks, Rowboats
- Field Sport events and Troop Competitions
- Visiting and camping at the 12,500 acre Scout Reservation – Ten Mile River Scout Camps, Narrowsburg NY
- Sharing fellowship and stories with the Ten Mile River Alumni Association and Ten Mile River Museum
- Purchase additional refreshments and memorabilia at stands set around camp
- And many other Scouting Activities and demonstrations

Mark your Troop and personal calendars. This event will take place on July 31, 2010. You may make arrangements to have your Troop arrive on Friday evening for tent camping, and your own Troop programming. Events will begin Saturday morning. Included in the pricing will be 3 meals, Saturday BBQ lunch, BBQ dinner, and a continental breakfast on Sunday, Tent Camping, and a participation patch for each registered person. Other concessions will be available for purchase. Cost of the celebration will be $25.00 per person, which is due no later than July 9, 2010 to reserve your reservation. Space is limited due to the anticipation of a large turnout. *Additional fee charged for the Delaware River Trip
