

Welcome to the Museum

Here is the story of the Ten Mile River from the original people to present day. The Ten Mile River Scout Museum is operated by the Greater New York Councils, Scouting America. It is dedicated to preserving the history and artifacts of the TMR Scout Camps (serving Scouts since 1927) and the local area.

Located at TMR's Headquarters Camp, the museum consists of a main building, Kernochan Blockhouse, Karl Bernstein Cayuga/Kotohke Cabin, and Kunatah Trading Post. It is open to the public and offers various tours, indoor exhibits and outdoor programs.

Museum Tour (60 minutes)

First-time visitors typically go on a tour of the museum beginning with a short video on the origin of Ten Mile River Scout Camps.

See memorabilia from all the camps created by the five NYC boroughs. Other exhibits include: local geology, Tusten Village artifacts, rock shelter arrowheads and artifacts, the Donut Farm, the Slide Farm, birds of prey and TMR wildlife.

Kernochan Blockhouse

Visit a two-level pioneer-era (1750s) reproduction miniature blockhouse. It contains copies of common items that were typically kept during the pioneering era. Here is an introduction into how blockhouses were used and what pioneer life was like along the Upper Delaware River.

Cayuga/Kotohke Cabin

A recreation of life in an actual Brooklyn Scout Camps open-air cabin from the 1930s and 1940s, complete with cots and straw ticks. Oversized photos depict cabins and tents from this era. A ten-minute video shows what camping was like in the Brooklyn Scout Camps. The display includes backpacks, kerosene lamps and other artifacts from typical camp life.

TEN MILE RIVER HISTORICAL TRAILS AWARD

Scouts can earn this award medal and patch with a 10-mile hike from their camp to the museum. Arrowhead devices can be earned for longer hikes and overnight campouts.

Trail Work Pin Award - Scouts can earn this award pin by completing a few hours of trail work.

For full requirements and information, contact the Museum or our website:

<https://www.tmr-museum.org/tmr-historic-trails-info>

Free TMR Map - When you visit the Museum, ask for your free TMR Trails Map.

Volunteer Trail Work at TMR - Your group can volunteer to do trail work whenever TMR is open. Besides improving TMR's trails for future hikers, your Scouts can use the service for rank advancement. TMR will provide trail work projects and all necessary tools. For further information, call the GNYC Office at 212-242-1100.

TRADING POST

The museum store has a huge variety of Scout memorabilia at low prices. Items include Scouting posters and literature, patches, neckerchiefs, campaign style hats, hiking sticks, bolo ties, Norman Rockwell plates, mugs, O.A. sashes, C.S.P.s, handbooks and magazines, old uniform, Jamboree and Philmont neckerchiefs. The $1 bin of patches contains treasures for all. Purchases benefit the museum. Donations are appreciated.

Specially for Scouts

Picnic Facilities – The museum grounds include three charcoal stoves, five picnic tables, drinking fountains, and clean-up sink. Units can arrange with their camp program director to have a bag lunch or barbecue.

Museum Historian Patch – This patch can be earned by completing requirements of a one-hour program including the video on the origins of TMR, a trivia scavenger hunt, and a visit to the Cayuga/Kotohke cabin.

Outdoor Programs – The museum offers outdoor programs for Scouts, including a campfire ring, pickleball, volleyball, badminton and horseshoes.

Join the Museum - Join the TMR Scout Museum and receive your member patch, our “Smoke Signals” newsletter, notification of Museum events and other benefits.
