

Ten Mile River Scout Museum to host classic car show during Alumni Day

50th Anniversary of Woodstock festival also celebrated

WHO: Opened in 1997, the Ten Mile River Scout Museum, www.tmrmuseum.org exists to preserve and promote the spirit and heritage of New York City Scouting at the Ten Mile River Scout Camps through the creation of historical archives, displays, exhibits of photos, memorabilia, documents and tangible items in both indoor and outdoor settings. It recognizes the local history in the vicinity of the Ten Mile River Scout Camps, Narrowsburg, N.Y.

What: It is expected over 100 classic cars will park on the grounds adjacent to the Ten Mile River Scout Museum. Admission is free for spectators. Car owners who would like to display their vehicle will be charged $10 per. There will be people's choices trophies and prize drawings.

Our camp and museum are located within 10 miles of the site of the 1969 concert at Max Yasgur's farm. Some concert attendees camped in parts of our 12,000-acre reservation, and some of our staff hiked over to the concert. In commemoration tie dyed t-shirts will be sold and made.

WHEN: Saturday, August 3, 9:00 a.m. -- 3:00 p.m. EDT, rain or shine.

WHERE: Headquarters at Ten Mile River Scout Camps, Narrowsburg, New York, which is located at 1481 Crystal Lake Road/Sullivan County Route 26, a ¼ mile east of the County Route 23 junction. Museum staff can be reached during operating hours at 845.252.3775.
