Local Boy Scout Museums

Ten Mile River Scout Museum

Description: Dedicated to preserving the history and artifacts of the Ten Mile River Scout Camps and the local area. Located in T.M.R.'s Headquarters Camp, the Museum has an extensive collection of T.M.R. memorabilia on display, including photographs, patches, neckerchiefs and neckerchief slides, signs, banners, maps, literature and physical artifacts. We also have a variety of early Scout uniforms displayed on mannequins.

Our comprehensive video collection includes narrated color slide shows, camp documentaries, home movies and interviews with former campers and staffers.

Our mini-theater can seat a group of 15-20 persons.

Over 350 staff photos are on display and in the Library. We also have memorabilia from organizations active at T.M.R., including the Order of the Arrow.

There are exhibits on local history, including the Donut Machine and other items from the Donut Farm. In addition, Ten Mile River C.C.C. Camp memorabilia, Colonial coins, metal buttons and other early artifacts, dating from the 1700's are on display.

See exhibits on the Lenni-Lenape Indians; Colonial Settlements; Delaware & Hudson Canal; Erie Railroad; Lumbering, Tanning, Bluestone Mining and Tourism industries.
